When working as a team it is essential that we are all on the same page. Do we all believe the same thing, and are we all headed in the same direction? This week we will begin a time of exploring the essentials of who we are as humans and who we are as people of faith. It is always a good idea to return to the basics on occasion and remind ourselves who we are and what we believe.

“We would like to express our gratitude and appreciation for the abundant love and generosity that we and our families received over the Christmas holiday season. From cards and baked goods to gifts and wonderful words of appreciation. In the busyness of the season, it is easy to get overwhelmed by all that is going on and all the demands. Your love and gifts help us to remain focused on the love and grace of the one born at Christmas for us all! Thank you again for taking the time and effort to bless us in the midst of your busy holiday season!”
--Pastor Sam, Pastor Darrell, and the Staff

A new Sunday School class starts today! “Thirty-something” is for couples in this age-range, will be led by Jennifer Lyons, and will meet each Sunday at 11:00am downstairs. Check it out!

Once I can endure the drive to and from church and am able to sit through the worship service, I am looking forward to being with you in the Lord's house once again. So blessed!” -- Pat Mann
